standout Luxe finishes twirl up curvaceous forms.

Russian interior and product designer Ekaterina Elizarova teamed with experimental Venetian studio Bosa to produce these fanciful striped fixtures inspired by circus tents and aerialists. The lustrous coatings hand painted on the ceramic pendants by Italian artisans contain particles of gold, platinum, and copper. As Elizarova explains, she "strive to create an object at once laconic and complicated." Design your nearly 12-by-6-inch fixture—there are 16 color and pattern variations to choose from—and hang it alone or clustered with others. elizarova.com circle 652 ➤
